St. Mary's Episcopal Church

A parish in the Diocese of Pennsylvania

May 22, 2022 10:00 AM- The Sixth Sunday of Easter, Rite II

Our Mission: God is calling the people of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Wayne, Pennsylvania to follow Jesus' teaching to love God with all our hearts, souls and minds; and to love our neighbor as ourselves. Therefore we love and embrace each other, friend and stranger alike in worship, service and prayer as we seek to live in and share God's Word.

Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Acts 16:9-15

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home." And she prevailed upon us.

Second Reading

Revelation 21:10,22-22:5

A reading from the book of Revelation.

In the spirit the angel carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God.

I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. Its gates will never be shut by day-- and there will be no night there. People will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

Holy Gospel

John 5:1-9

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you Lord Christ.

After Jesus healed the son of the official in Capernaum, there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, called in Hebrew Beth-zatha, which has five porticoes. In these lay many invalids-- blind, lame, and paralyzed. One man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years. When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had been there a long time, he said to him, "Do you want to be made well?" The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; and while I am making my way, someone else steps down ahead of me." Jesus said to him, "Stand up, take your mat and walk." At once the man was made well, and he took up his mat and began to walk. Now that day was a sabbath.

Sermon

Rev. Joseph K. Smith

Nicene Creed

All stand.

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Sisters and brothers, do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. The God of peace has prepared for us such good things as surpass our understanding, so let us rejoice, saying, “Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the people praise you.”

By the gift and power of the Holy Spirit, teach your Church to walk in the ways of Jesus. May the gospel be found in our minds, in our hearts, and on our lips. This week in our parish cycle of prayers, we pray for the families of some of our online worshipers (congregation reads the names aloud) Margaret and Vaughn Wicker, Johnsie Canny and Bobbie Daniel.

Silence; Let the peoples praise you, O God;

Let all the peoples praise you.

Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you judge the peoples with equity and guide all the nations upon earth. We look for the day, O God, when all the peoples gather around your throne in praise and worship.

Silence; Let the peoples praise you, O God;

Let all the peoples praise you.

O God from whom all good proceeds: bless the earth to bring forth her increase. Guide all your people to honor you by caring for your creation.

Silence; Let the peoples praise you, O God;

Let all the peoples praise you.

Give to our country, O God, your peace. Shine the light of your love on those places that are plagued by gangs and violence, hatred and sadness. Be merciful to us and bless us.

Silence; Let the peoples praise you, O God;

Let all the peoples praise you.

Almighty God, let your ways be known upon earth, your saving health among all nations. Give to the sick and suffering a taste of the water of life. Remembering (Congregation reads the names aloud) Jennifer Lurie, Irene Steinhardt, Lisa Hart, Judy Austin, Victoria Coates, JoAnne Vereneck, Mary Kelleher, Dave Seavey, Mary Tatnall and June Evans.

Silence; Let the peoples praise you, O God;

Let all the peoples praise you.

Grant us, O God, by your great mercy, entrance into your heavenly city where we might worship at your throne, see you face to face, and reign with you forever and ever. Remembering Joseph A. Dixon for whom the flowers on the High Altar are given and Milas Bennett for whom the additional flowers are given. We also remember Oliver Feldman for whom the Sanctuary Candle is given and Evangeline Ford, George Arnott, F. Ned Hand, Brenda Ziglar and Frank Rippel on the anniversary of their deaths this past week.

We also pray for other special intentions which may be added at this time either silently, aloud or electronically.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect

O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Peace

All stand.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome and Announcements

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem -All things bright and beautiful

J.Rutter

All things bright and beautiful, All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful, The Lord God made them all.
Each little flower that opens, Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours, He made their tiny wings. (Refrain)

The purple-headed mountain, The river running by,
The sunset and the morning, That brightens up the sky;
The cold wind in the winter, The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden, He made them every one; (Refrain)

He gave us eyes to see them, And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty, Who has made all things well.
All things bright and beautiful, All creatures great and small
All things wise and wonderful, The Lord God made them all.

The people stand.

Presentation - Hymn 380, Praise God from whom all blessings flow (vs 3)

Old rooth

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise him all creatures here below;
Praise him above ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

The people kneel or stand.

Then the Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,

We proclaim his resurrection

We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

A period of silence is kept.

Then may be sung or said

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The score includes various musical notations such as treble clefs, key signatures, time signatures, and dynamic markings.

The Celebrant says

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Communion Motet, A rose touched by the sun's warm rays

J. Berger

A rose touched by the sun's warm rays All its petals gently does unfold;

So you when touched by God's great mercy, Let joy and gladness win your soul.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

A prayer for those observing birthdays

Watch over your children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may your peace which passes understanding abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A prayer for those observing anniversaries

O God, you have so consecrated the covenant of marriage that in it is represented the spiritual unity between Christ and his Church; Send your blessing upon these persons who come to renew their promises to each other, and grant them in your grace, that they may so love, honor, and cherish each other in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their lives together may be a witness to your love and forgiveness, and that their home may be a haven of blessing and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Parish Cycle of Prayers

This week in our parish cycle of prayers we pray for the families of some of our online worshipers Margaret and Vaughn Wicker, Johnsie Canny and Bobbie Daniel.

Intercession List

Please pray for those in ongoing need of our prayers and all on our parish intercession list at St. Mary's:

Please note: It is our practice to take individuals off the Intercession list after four weeks unless we are notified to keep them on. Please let the office know if you need to keep someone on for longer. The names read aloud today are St. Mary's parishioners and family members of parishioners. They include Jennifer Lurie, Irene Steinhardt, Lisa Hart, Judy Austin, Victoria Coates, JoAnne Vereneck, Mary Kelleher, Dave Seavey, Mary Tatnall and June Evans. Also included on the prayer list are our friends Susan Rex, John Paul, John Cappelli, the Balkind family, Peggy Wilson, Donna Fitzpatrick, John Satterfield, Rancy Right, Carol Lasco and Jenny O'Donovan. You are encouraged to say aloud the names of your loved ones during the Prayers of the People when the lector pauses for the congregation to add their own petitions.

St. Mary's Book Club - The 2nd Wednesday of every month @ 2:00 p.m.

There will be no Zoom option. In June we plan to read Jude the Obscure by Thomas Hardy (1895) and in July, The Pilgrim's Progress by John Bunyan (1678). There will be no book club in August. In September we will discuss The Iliad. Everyone is cordially invited, whether you have read the book or not. We look forward to seeing you whenever you can join us.

Monday Morning Bible Study - Zoom Only

Monday morning Bible study is the Book of Genesis with lectures by N. T. Wright facilitated by Father Joseph. We meet each Monday at 11:00 am via Zoom. See the link in the E-chimes or website.

St. Mary's Drama-Reading Group

After a long hiatus, the St. Mary's drama-reading group will convene at Erlis and John Wickersham's. We will meet at 5:45 p.m. on Thursday evening, June 9th for a potluck supper. We plan to dine outdoors if the weather permits. After supper we will read Shakespeare's tragedy Othello: or The Moor of Venice. Please RSVP with a suggestion as to what table-ready dish you will contribute. Everyone is cordially invited, and you don't have to read from the play to be included. Anyone is welcome to join us.

Calling all High School Seniors

If you or your are a parent or grandparent of a child who is a high school senior and would like to participate in our annual Senior Sunday, please contact Fr. Joseph. Currently the actual date will be flexible depending on the schedules of those who would like to participate.

Calling all Foreign Language Readers

As is our custom at St. Mary's, we need your help proclaiming the Good News on Pentecost. If you can read a foreign language, even a little, we need your help in that proclamation. Our aim is to bring the reading from the Acts of the Apostles alive. To the best of our ability we would like for the congregation to experience what it might have sounded like on the streets of Jerusalem when the apostles were able to speak and the people hear the Good News about Jesus Christ in their own language. Please contact Fr. Joseph at frjoseph@stmaryswayne.org if you are willing to help us spread the Good News.

Adult Formation

On Sunday May 22, Christian Formation for All will take place at 11:30 am during Coffee Hour in the Father Greene Room, when Dr. Gordon Turk and the Choir will lead us in a quick-paced, upbeat intergenerational sing-along with the support of the piano. The music will focus on hymns, spirituals, and songs from various traditions, all of which have to do with the Holy Spirit.

This will be a tuneful preparation for our bigger Pentecost celebration - the "Birthday of the Church," on Sunday, June 5 (thankfully not on Memorial Day Weekend this year). So, we will count on many more of you to be present for a vibrant and inspirational service on Pentecost, (wear red, if you can - the color for Pentecost), and enjoy a festive Coffee Hour with a Red Cake!

On Sunday May 22, there will be no 8:30 am Zoom class.

Feast of the Ascension

St. Mary's will join with Christ Church Ithan to celebrate the feast of the Ascension on Thursday, May 26, at 6:00 pm at Christ Church, Ithan. We are stronger together. Come be a part of this wonderful worship experience.
