

St. Mary's Episcopal Church

A parish in the Diocese of Pennsylvania

October 19, 2025 10:00 AM The Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost, Rite II

Our Mission: God is calling the people of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Wayne, Pennsylvania to follow Jesus' teaching to love God with all our hearts, souls and minds; and to love our neighbor as ourselves. Therefore we love and embrace each other, friend and stranger alike in worship, service and prayer as we seek to live in and share God's Word.

– Adopted by the St. Mary's Vestry, May 2015

The Parable of the Unjust Judge. Painting by Pieter de Grebber (1600-1652)

Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth? - Luke 18:6-8

Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

All may be seated.

First Reading

Jeremiah 31:27-34

A Reading from the Prophet Jeremiah.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of humans and the seed of animals. And just as I have watched over them to pluck up and break down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring evil, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says the Lord. In those days they shall no longer say:

“The parents have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge.”

But all shall die for their own sins; the teeth of everyone who eats sour grapes shall be set on edge.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt-- a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, “Know the Lord,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

- 97 Oh, how I love your law! *
all the day long it is in my mind.
- 98 Your commandment has made me wiser than my enemies, *
and it is always with me.
- 99 I have more understanding than all my teachers, *
for your decrees are my study.
- 100 I am wiser than the elders, *
because I observe your commandments.
- 101 I restrain my feet from every evil way, *
that I may keep your word.
- 102 I do not shrink from your judgments, *
because you yourself have taught me.
- 103 How sweet are your words to my taste! *
they are sweeter than honey to my mouth.
- 104 Through your commandments I gain understanding; *
therefore I hate every lying way.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 3:14-4:5

A Reading from Paul's Second Letter to Timothy.

As for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favorable or unfavorable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

Seek Ye First

Holy Gospel

Luke 18:1-8

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus told his disciples a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my opponent.' For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, 'Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.'" And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Nicene Creed

Those who are able may stand.

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen

Those who are able remain standing.

Prayers of the People - Form II

In the course of the silence after each bidding, the People offer their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

Leader

I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for our Bishop Daniel; for this gathering; and for all ministers and people. In this week's parish cycle of prayers, we pray for (the congregation reads aloud)

Louisa Ridgway, David & Joyce Randolph, Janice Radford, Allyson Radford and their families.

Pray for the Church.

Silence

I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people.

Pray for justice and peace.

Silence

I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison. Pray for those in any need or trouble. Remembering, (the congregation reads aloud) Irene Steinhardt, Jennifer Lurie, JoAnne Vereneck, Jim Cobb, Scott Ziglar, Magali Behrmann, Wilhelm Rebmann, Timothy O'Donovan, Aldys Davis, Guillaume Brunet, Enid Ball, Bob Buckley, Connie, John Paul, Peggy Wilson, Emma Cavanaugh-Kerr, Stan Compton, Arlene, Grace Carter and her family, Karen Iacobucci, Rebecca, Lilly, Megan Ripperger, Edith, Chrissy Creamer, Louisa Ridgway, Shannon Crowley, Sophie Bond, Dave Long, Fionn Reid, The Donnellann Family and Sandy.

Pray for those in any need or trouble.

Silence

I ask your prayers for the departed especially Phyllis-Ray and Thomas Cobb for whom the Flowers on the High Altar and the Lady Chapel Altar are given this morning, and we pray for Lyons Hamblen for whom the Sanctuary Light is given.

Pray for those who have died.

Silence

Members of the congregation may ask the prayers or the thanksgivings of those present

I ask your prayers for _____.

I ask your thanksgiving for _____.

Silence

Praise God for those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored.

Silence

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Almighty God, to whom our needs are known before we ask: Help us to ask only what accords with your will; and those good things which we dare not, or in our blindness cannot ask, grant us for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Those who are able may stand.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Offertory Anthem Glory to God

Johann Sebastian Bach

Glory, glory to God, the Father, Bow before Him all ye nations.
Glory to the Son of God, Sing His praises evermore, Let all earth and heaven rejoice, For the blessings He has brought,
Glory to the great creator for the wonders He has wrought.
O give thanks unto the Lord and call upon His holy name.
Glory, glory to God, the Father, Bow before Him all ye nations.
Glory to God, the Father.

Those who are able may stand.

Doxology Hymn

380. v 3

Praise God from whom all blessings flow, Praise Him all creatures here below, Praise Him above ye heavenly host. Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

Those who are able remain standing.

Eucharistic Prayer B

The Celebrant, whether bishop or priest, faces them and sings or says:

The musical notation consists of four staves, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are written below the notes. The first staff is for the Celebrant and the second for the People. The third staff is for the Celebrant and the fourth for the People. The lyrics are: The Lord be with you. And al - so with you. Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant The Lord be with you. People And al - so with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts. People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Celebrant inserts proper preface

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name.

Sanctus S128

W. Mathias

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

Those who are able stand or kneel.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days You sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,

We proclaim his resurrection,

We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with St. Mary and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Then may be sung or said

Agnus Dei S 165

W. Mathias

The Celebrant says

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

If you would like to receive a prayer for healing, for yourself or another, a healing minister will pray with you in the Lady Chapel.

Communion Motet Hymn 309

Johann Sebastian Bach

O Food to pilgrims given,
O Bread of life from heaven,
O Manna from on high
We hunger; Lord, supply us,
nor thy delights deny us,
whose hearts to thee draw nigh.

O stream of love past telling,
O purest fountain, welling
from out the Savior's side!
We faint with thirst; revive us,
of thine abundance give us,
and all we need provide.

O Jesus, by thee bidden,
we here adore thee, hidden in forms of bread and wine.
Grant when the veil is riven,
we may behold, in heaven,
thy countenance divine.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A prayer for those observing birthdays

Watch over your children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may your peace which passes understanding abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A prayer for those observing anniversaries

O God, you have so consecrated the covenant of marriage that in it is represented the spiritual unity between Christ and his Church. Send your blessing upon these persons who come to renew their promises to each other, and grant them in your grace, that they may so love, honor, and cherish each other in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their lives together may be a witness to your love and forgiveness, and that their home may be a haven of blessing and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Celebrant blesses the people.

Spiritual Formation

TODAY October 19th 2025

Special Guests Christian and Viola Terwiesch

Christian and Viola Terwiesch were born and raised in Germany, have lived in France, been in the United States for many years, and speak all three languages fluently. Christian is a professor of business systems, analytics, and economics at Penn's Wharton School prestigious Executive MBA program. Viola, while equally intellectual, spends most of her time helping and supporting others, through the church and in other ways, especially German scholars and immigrants in the US.

Christian and Viola have been committed Christians all their lives and are members of the Ardmore Presbyterian Church, where they have, and are, serving on Session and as Deacon. Their three sons were raised in the church and in Gary Garlett's choir programs. But they do have an Episcopalian connection - Christian teaches each Jan. - March in San Francisco, and they attend an Episcopal church while there. Their knowledge of the German church and its history, including Dietrich Bonhoeffer and his times, is vast. We at St. Mary's are grateful they are spending time with us today after the roam service.

Youth And Adult Formation Classes

Fall, 2025 Navajo Room, Sundays at 9am

On Sunday, October 26th We will continue studying excerpts from Lutheran theologian and Hitler antagonist Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Letters And Papers From Prison. Everyone is welcome to attend, as we learn how Bonhoeffer's message of love and compassion transcends his own century to illuminate our own.

On November 2nd, during coffee hour, we will welcome another guest speaker, someone who will address the subject of stewardship.

On November 9th, 16th and 23rd, we will study the book of Acts, including a consideration of how early Christians lived. We will read with a view to understanding how each of these readings inform our lives today.

There is no class on November 30th because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

Finally, this year's Advent Quiet Day will take place on Saturday, December 6th. Please mark your calendars and plan to attend any or all of these interesting classes. If you have questions, please feel free to contact Erlis Wickersham at vze27g53@verizon.net.

"A Time for Growth"

"As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace."

-1 Peter 4:10

St. Mary's is blessed that so many things remain constant for the church...the Love of God, St. Mary's ministry to parishioners and the community, and the support of our church family. Everything we have is a gift from God. In gratitude, we dedicate some of these God-given gifts of Stewardship...our Time, Talent, and Treasure...to further God's Kingdom. Your Stewardship makes it all possible.

For 2026, we need to plan our budget for the church's many expenses, including payroll, insurance, utility costs, repairs to our three buildings, as well as other operating expenses. We hope each family can make a 2026 pledge so we can continue to be good stewards in the year ahead. You will receive a pledge card in the mail soon. You can also go to St. Mary's website and click the Stewardship tab and scroll down to the Annual Pledge 2026 tab.

Andrew Clifford will share his heartfelt thoughts about what St. Mary's has meant to him and his family at the St. Mary's October 19th 10:00am service.

St. Mary's is grateful for your generosity!

Monday Morning Bible Study

Online via Zoom at 11:00am

The Bible study group is finishing its consideration of First Corinthians. We expect to begin Second Corinthians on Monday, October 20th. This close textual study is open to everyone. There are no assignments, and you are welcome to join at any time. October 20th would be an especially good time to add the devotion of weekly Scripture reading and discussion to your schedule. For answers to your questions or to make suggestions for future reading, please contact Erlis Wickersham at at: vze27g53@verizon.net.

Fall Outdoor Clean-up Day, this year will be on Saturday, November 1st
10:00am- 2:00pm

Spend a few hours helping to tidy and beautify our campus. Calling all volunteers to help rake leaves, prune bushes, remove branches, etc. If you have tools you prefer to use, bring them - but we will have plenty of tools on hand. We will also have a dumpster in the driveway for any yard waste, and any old, unnecessary items stored in the basement of the church. Lunch and snacks will be provided. Questions? Contact Laurie Buechle at: lbuechle@verizon.net.

Join St. Mary's for Our Fall 2025
Good Works Volunteer Day
November 8th

"For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do."
- Ephesians 2:10

St. Mary's is excited to return for our second Good Works volunteer day of 2025! On Saturday, November 8th, join us in embracing the spirit of service as we help repair homes and restore hope for low-income families.

This effort is organized by Good Works, a Christian nonprofit based in Phoenixville, PA. Volunteers of all skill levels are welcome — there's a place for everyone to contribute!

To sign up and for more details, please contact:

- Peter Burke – burkenes@yahoo.com
- Geoff Aigeltinger – aigeltgk@yahoo.com

Let's come together once again to create lasting change for families in need!

St. Mary's Book Club
November 12 at 2pm
At Ellen Buerklin's House

The next meeting of the book club will take place on Wednesday, November 12 at Ellen's Buerklin's house. We will discuss Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's famous novel, The Hound of the Baskervilles. In December at Erlis Wickersham's house we will consider A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court by Mark Twain. Our January reading is John Milton's, Hymn on the Morning of Christ's Nativity (1645). Everyone is cordially invited to join the group for fellowship and a lively exchange of ideas, whether you have read the book or not. If you have questions, please contact Erlis Wickersham.

All Saint's Day

If you would like a loved one prayed for during All Saints Celebration on Sunday November 2, please contact Nicole Marie in the office.

Administration Deadline

The weekly liturgy bulletins are available online on Fridays and in print on Sundays. The eChimes is distributed on Fridays. To help us meet these deadlines, all announcements, photographs, and notices must be submitted to our Parish Administrator, Nicole Marie, by the End of the day on Tuesdays. We appreciate your understanding. Please note: If you miss the deadline, do not worry the announcement can be published the following week. You may reach out to our Parish Administrator, Nicole Marie with questions at nicole@stmaryswaynepa.org or (610)-688-1313 (ext. 202).

Save the date! November 15th
Get ready to Feast!

St. Mary's Annual Fall Food Festival is scheduled for Saturday, November 15, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. This year will feature many of our favorite familiar foods as well as fun new activities and food options! Consider signing up to Volunteer for a few hours that day, or contribute by baking goodies or preparing a frozen casserole. The sign-up poster can be found in the Narthex before and after 10 am services, or in the Navajo room during Coffee Hour.
