St. Mary's Episcopal Church

A parish in the Diocese of Pennsylvania

May 19, 2024 10:00 AM The Day of Pentecost

Our Mission: God is calling the people of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Wayne, Pennsylvania to follow Jesus' teaching to love God with all our hearts, souls and minds; and to love our neighbor as ourselves. Therefore we love and embrace each other, friend and stranger alike in worship, service and prayer as we seek to live in and share God's Word.

– Adopted by the St. Mary's Vestry, May 2015

First Reading

Acts 2:1-21

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

‘In the last days it will be, God declares,
that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.

Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above
and signs on the earth below,
blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,
before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’“

Second Reading

Romans 8:22-27

A Reading from Paul's Letter to the Romans.

We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

Holy Gospel

John 15:26-27; 16:4b-15

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to his disciples, "When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.

"I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

"I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Sermon

The Rev. Lucy Ann Dure

Nicene Creed

All stand.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen

Remain standing.

Prayers of the People

Through the waters of baptism we have been joined together in the fellowship of Christ, and in the power of the Spirit we are sent forth to proclaim words and deeds of love, beginning with the offering of our prayers; responding, "Come, Holy Spirit, Come."

Spirit of thankfulness, we offer our gratitude for all those who worship at St. Mary's remembering this week in our Parish Cycle of Prayers David & Kirsten Parsells, Timothy O'Donovan, Brian & Linda Noll and their families; (silence) this we pray.

People Come, Holy Spirit, Come.

Wisdom from on high, be with the leaders of the nations, giving them discernment and patience as they guide the people they serve; (silence) this we pray.

People Come, Holy Spirit, Come.

Mighty Wind and Holy Fire, unsettle the hearts and minds of this church and diocesan community, that we may be challenged anew to hear your word and boldly live its message; (silence) this we pray.

People Come, Holy Spirit, Come.

Blessed Advocate, may our ministries reflect your love for the poor in spirit, the needy, the sinner, those who are victims of injustice, oppression, violence and abuse, and for all whom the Son of God gave his life; (silence) this we pray.

People Come, Holy Spirit, Come.

Spirit of many tongues, may the peoples of the world find a common language of the heart where cultural and racial diversity find holy ground, and nations suffering under bonds of oppression discover the way to peace; (silence) this we pray.

People Come, Holy Spirit, Come.

Healing Spirit, we pray for those who are sick or in need of our prayer's especially (congregation reads the name aloud) Irene Steinhardt, Barbara Kidder, Jennifer Lurie, Victoria Coates, JoAnne Vereneck, Jim Cobb, Scott Ziglar, Craig and Ann Marie Erickson, Marylu Hill and her family, Magali Behrmann, and Avanya Manasseh; (silence) this we pray.

People Come, Holy Spirit, Come.

Breath of Life, open our eyes to the needs of our environment, that we, and all the nations of the world may prudently and tenderly nurture our fragile home; (silence) this we pray.

People Come, Holy Spirit, Come.

Holy Comforter, pour your grace into the souls of all who have died, that they may know your abiding presence; remembering especially Betty and Frank Rippel and Joseph A. Dixon for whom the flowers on the High Altar are given, for Milas Bennett for whom the Lady Chapel Altar Flowers are given, and Oliver Feldman in whose memory the Sanctuary Candle is given; (silence) this we pray.

People Come, Holy Spirit, Come.

Filled with the power of the Holy Spirit urging us to be people of passionate witness, let us continue our prayers either silently or aloud.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect

Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, "Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you:" Regard not our sins, but the faith of your Church, and give to us the peace and unity of that heavenly City, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, now and for ever. Amen.

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

All stand.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Old 100th

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below;

Praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen

The people remain standing.

The people stand or kneel.

Then the Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection
We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever.  A-men.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

A prayer for those observing birthdays

Watch over your children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may your peace which passes understanding abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A prayer for those observing anniversaries

O God, you have so consecrated the covenant of marriage that in it is represented the spiritual unity between Christ and his Church; Send your blessing upon these persons who come to renew their promises to each other, and grant them in your grace, that they may so love, honor, and cherish each other in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their lives together may be a witness to your love and forgiveness, and that their home may be a haven of blessing and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant blesses the people.

Please note: Kindly let our Parish Administrator Nicole Marie know if you would like yourself or another prayed for at our services. It is our practice to take individuals off the Intercession list after four weeks unless more time is requested.

Our Transition Prayer for this week:

Pray for the Vestry and the Search Committee.
Dear Lord, bless with your heavenly wisdom those who are to choose a new rector for this parish. We ask for a wise and gentle shepherd, ready to serve us with joy, build us up in faith, and lead us by example. We ask these things through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Spring and Summer Pledge Reminder: As we enter the spring and summer months and the heart of vacation season, we would kindly ask that you also try to keep current with your 2024 pledges. Keeping your pledge current will help us keep up with utility, insurance and other expenses that are incurred throughout the year. If you did not make a pledge for 2024, non-pledge gifts or other contributions are always welcomed during the year. If you need some help to figure where you stand with your pledge, please reach out to our Parish Administrator, Nicole Marie at nicole@stmaryswayne.org.

Bryn Mawr Film Institute on Tuesday, May 21, at 7:00 pm there will be a screening of a new documentary called The Philadelphia Eleven, which tells the story of the first group of women to be ordained as priests in the Episcopal Church. There will be a moderated discussion after the film featuring several panelists, including Rev. JoAnn Bradley Jones, Rev. Thomas Szczerba, and Rev. Dr. Flora Keshgegian. Transition & Transformation Funding

As our search for a new rector progresses, we are seeking financial support for specific work items critical to a successful and welcoming transition and transformation which we are currently undergoing. Contributions to our Transition and Transformation Fund go directly to project items on the work list for the Rectory, Parish Hall, and Church.

The focus now is the Rectory where we have eight additional work items to complete as well as the roof and support structure for the Fr. Greene emergency exit. Examples are the Rectory kitchen cabinets, floor, countertop, and sink/faucet, as well as the broken underground stormwater drainpipe. Rectory estimates are still developing. Estimates in hand so far put Rectory work at about $40,000. The Fr. Greene exit estimates put that work at $21,000 due to the severity of the damage to the roof and support structure.

The B&G Committee wishes to thank all those who have contributed to date including two anonymous gifts for the Rectory roof repair and the repairs to the Fr. Greene room south windows. Every donation matters and is greatly appreciated.

There are two ways to donate: You can send a check to Nicole Marie, our Parish Administrator made out to St. Mary's Episcopal Church and on the memo line put "T&T Fund". Donors may also specify a work item such as Rectory Kitchen, Rectory Pipe, Rectory Doorbell etc. by adding the item to the memo on the check, or by sending an email to Nicole Marie at nicole@stmaryswayne.org. Your donation will be reserved for that item of work. You can also find a link for donating to the fund under the Stewardship tab on our website where you will also find additional information about the work item projects.

If you have questions please reach out to Bob Mickel at robertmickel27@gmail.com or David Gardiner at dfgardiner99@outlook.com, from the B&G Committee.

Rectory Workday Our next Workday is TODAY this afternoon, May 19, after our morning services. Lunch will be provided! The Painting of the Rectory with volunteer efforts led by Allyson Radford & Jim Anderson have made immense progress - All walls have been rolled except for the Kitchen, Butler’s Pantry and Laundry Room. Trim is in progress and will be proceeding from bottom to top as we hope to be showing the space soon!

If you have any questions about volunteering to help wrap up the painting of the Rectory please reach out to Allyson Radford at radford.allyson@gmail.com or Jim Anderson at jsanderson569@gmail.com.

Adult Formation on Sunday mornings at 9am will be on hiatus for a few weeks, and will resume in June, date and subject TBD. Reach out to Mother Lucy Ann or Erlis Wickersham with any ideas or questions.

The Bible Study that meets on Zoom has resumed on Mondays from 11am - 12pm. Now we are reading The Book of Psalms together. After reading from the Scripture, we discuss the passage to discover its relevance for lives today. All are always welcome to join us as we “read, mark, learn and inwardly digest” the meaning. Just click on the link on the homepage of the St. Mary’s website under the heading “Weekly Activities.” If you have any questions, feel free to speak with Twila, Erlis or Mother Lucy Ann.

St. Mary’s Book Club The June meeting of the St. Mary’s Book Club will take place on Wednesday, June 12th at 2 p.m. at Jean Wetzel’s house. We will read Alfie and Me; What Owls Know, What Humans Believe (2023) by Carl Safina. At our July 10th meeting our selection will be Bel Canto (2001) by Ann Patchett. There will be no book club in August. In September we intend to consider the poetry of Emily Dickinson. Please come to the book club! You don’t even have to read the book. The conversation is always lively, and we serve delicious refreshments. If you have questions please contact Erlis Wickersham at vze27g53@verizon.net

Housekeeping Due to our administrative office hours, all announcements for the Sunday Bulletin and weekly Chimes Newsletter need to be submitted to our Parish Administrator, Nicole Marie, by the end of the day on Tuesdays. Also please note that Nicole plans to be out of the office for summer vacations June 6th through June 12th and July 9th through July 17th. For Nicole’s travels in June announcements will need to be submitted by Tuesday June 4th and for Nicole’s travels in July announcements will need to be submitted by Tuesday July 2nd. We appreciate your understanding.
